"You have to treat your land right." Blackmount Farm, Haverhill, NH Permanently Protected

Blackmount farm has been in Bob Stoddard's family since his grandfather purchased the land in 1936. Bob and his wife Linda have owned and operated the farm for over 40 years. Both have been involved in agriculture and advocating for the protection of agricultural land for most of their lives. The Stoddards decided the best choice for them and their farm was to conserve it.
